D G D

VERSE 1

The King shall come when morning dawns and light triumphant breaks
When beauty gilds the eastern hills and life to joy awakes
Not as of old a humble child to bear, and fight, and die
But crowned with glory like the sun that lights the morning sky

VERSE 2

O brighter than the rising morn when He, victorious, rose,
And left the lonesome place of death despite the rage of foes.
O brighter than that glorious morn shall this fair morning be,
When Christ, our King, in glory comes and we His face shall see.

The King shall come when morning dawns and light triumphant breaks
"Hail, Christ the Lord!" Thy people pray, "Come quickly, King of kings!"
